MacPhail Sing for Life Choir

This month we will start another session of choir practices with our teaching artist Joey Clark. We had such a great time with our last session and concert that we can't wait to start again! If you would love to sing in a choir (with a great teacher!), now is your time! There will be practices will be on Thursdays, January 20 & 27 at 10:00 am and will continue into February and March, ending with another concert in the Spring. All will be in the Community Room.

Come meet our new residents on Monday, January 24 at 6:30 pm in the Community Room.

We will make our own hot chocolate from a hot chocolate bar. For those who want an extra "kick" there will be Baileys and Kahula too! All residents (new or not!) are welcome.
